Safety and Health Awareness Day – 21 March 2019

Introduction

The WWT Group, supported by the Health & Safety Executive and CITB is holding a free half-day event aimed at:

Managers, Operatives & supervisors

The event aims are to raise awareness of construction related risks and the safety critical functions when using construction related plant, safe use of scaffolding and to also raise the awareness of mental wellbeing and occupational health related diseases in construction.

This is one of a series of free partnership events run by the industry for the industry, as part of the UK-wide Working Well Together (WWT) construction industry health and safety initiative.

There will also be opportunities to meet the specialist manufacturers and Exhibitors.

If you are a construction client, contractor or self-employed then this free half day event is a must.
